

September 14, 2015

Dear Friend,

I hope that you had a restful labor day weekend. September is here and the Board is back from recess and has resumed its usual schedule. As always, a list of Action Summaries and Tentative Agendas are available below. Please notice the special meeting that the Board has scheduled regarding the appointment of an interim Broad Run District Supervisor. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to reach out to my office.

Warm Regards,
Scott

Board of Supervisors Schedules Special Meeting

The Loudoun County Board of Supervisors will hold a special meeting beginning at 7:00 p.m., Monday, September 21, 2015, in the Board Room of the Loudoun County Government Center, 1 Harrison Street, S.E. in Leesburg. The purpose of the meeting is to appoint an interim Broad Run District Supervisor whose term will end December 31, 2015.

The Board of Supervisors is accepting applications for candidates who are interested in serving as supervisor for the Broad Run District. For consideration, completed applications should be submitted by 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, September 15, 2015. More information about the process of selecting an interim supervisor is online here.

Board Proclaims September 20th "Military Appreciation Day"

The Loudoun County Board of Supervisors has unanimously proclaimed Sunday, September 20, 2015, as Military Appreciation Day in Loudoun County. In presenting the resolution to a group of local veterans Wednesday, the Board also called attention to the upcoming "Loudoun Salute to Military, Veterans & Families" set for 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., September 20, 2015, at Stone Bridge High School, 43100 Hay Road in Ashburn. The community is invited to attend the free event with members of the Board of Supervisors and others.

New Director of Loudoun County Animal Services

Nina Stively is Loudoun County's new Director of the Department of Animal Services. Stively comes to Loudoun County from the National Wildlife Federation, where she was a senior manager. In addition to working for the National Wildlife Federation, Stively has served as Director of Community Outreach for the Espanola Valley, New Mexico, Humane Society, where she oversaw recruitment, management, and training for a staff of 27 employees and 65 volunteers. She also worked as a writer for the online magazine, DogTime.com; and was the Mobile Adoptions Coordinator for the Santa Fe, New Mexico, Animal Shelter & Humane Society, where she expanded the mobile adoption program with record-setting results.

As Director of the Loudoun County Department of Animal Services (LCAS), Stively will oversee an agency that promotes the positive treatment of animals through animal sheltering, law enforcement, humane education, and community outreach. LCAS operates an animal shelter which provides for companion animals that have been surrendered by their owners or found as strays in the county. The shelter also offers pets for adoption. The officers who serve in the department's Animal Control Division enforce local and state animal laws and investigate reports of animal cruelty. For more information, click here.
